President's News for May 2014

President Jerry Radke

It is hard to believe that the 2013-2014 Lions Year is almost over. The month of May has been a busy one. On May 14 we held our regular dinner and board meetings where we heard the results of our April 27 Pancake Day. We served 171 people and had a tentative net profit of $605. Our biggest expense was Gates Hall at $440 so we need to be looking for alternative places to hold our pancake events. John Beals had our program: Kris Corbin with Phil and Paula Page from the Nevada Community Historical Society.

Charlene Jarboe hosted an Ice Cream Social at the Nevada Chamber of Commerce on May 17 from 10 to 11:30 am to attract potential members.

Lion John Beals presented our two $1000 Lions Scholarships to Sadie Backoff and Elizabeth Kloewer at the Nevada High School Graduation on May 25.

Paul Malsom had Teresa Downing-Matibag speak on Human Trafficking at our May 28 meeting. Nine Nevada Lions worked at the ISU Memorial Union for the Odyssey of the Mind Conference serving breakfasts from May 28 through June 1, 2014.
